BRUSSELS

WELCOME

Since its opening in 1895, the Hôtel Métropole has been revered the world over for its grandeur and residential warmth.

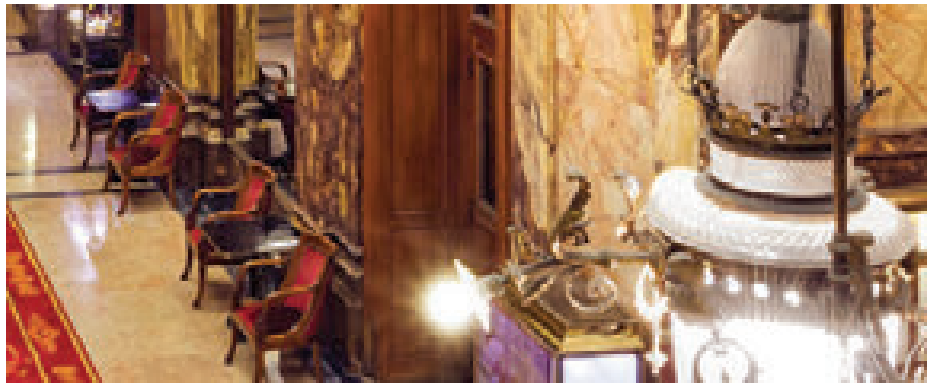

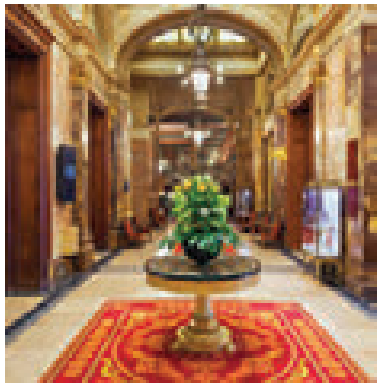

Its superb location on the Place de Brouckère and near the business, cultural and shopping districts, makes this family-owned hotel the unparalleled downtown Brussels city hotel with a feel unlike any other urban destination. The hotel is located close to Grand Place and all Brussels attractions are easily accessible.

LOBBY

Ever felt like entering a different world where one is considered special and privileged?

Walk through the Belle Epoque style foyer with marble walls, a protected heritage by Monuments and Sites of the Brussels' Region. It Leads to the breath taking Empire style reception hall, where columns and pillars line the room.

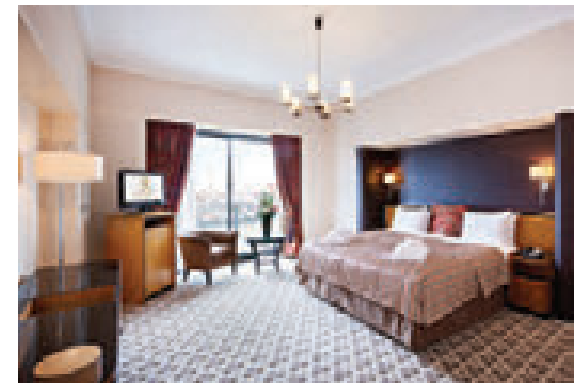

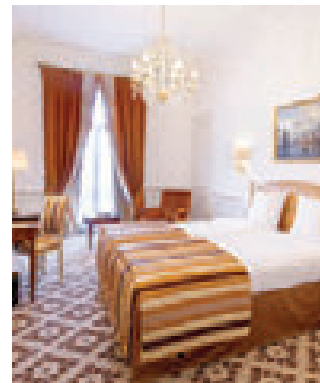

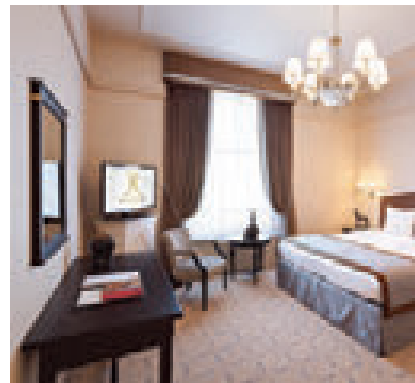

For more than a century the Hôtel Métropole has remained a pinnacle of luxury and ease.

SUPERIOR & PRIVILEGE ROOMS

Métropole Hôtel offers guests true urban sanctuaries, with 286 rooms of which 23 suites that are all equipped to the highest hospitality standards.

Each room features stylish interiors and sophisticated luxury amenities.

The generously proportioned Privilege Rooms provide 30-32 square metres of urban refuge, with an indulgent marble bathroom. They are ideal for travellers who appreciate the luxury of space.

SUITES

The Suites at Métropole Hôtel are the ultimate in pampering, yet efficient and exceedingly well equipped - they fit for royalty, artists or lovers. They are the ideal space for guests who are enjoying Brussels so much they never want to leave.

Some of the suites even have sumptuous custom-made furniture specially crafted for Hôtel Métropole by interior designer office Cartisane Décor Cy.

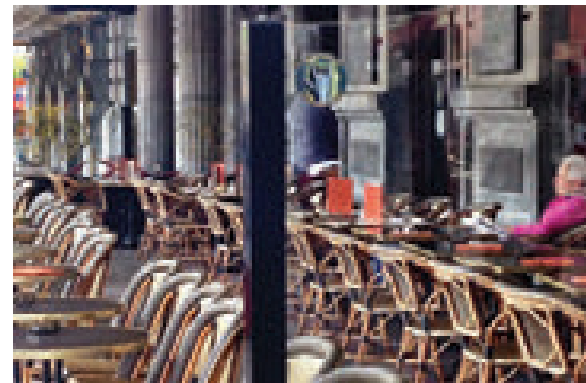

Café Métropole, a mythical place in Brussels, offers high-end brasserie cuisine with infamous Belgian Classics reviving the history of this building, which was founded by the Wielemans-Ceuppens brewer's family in 1890.

A classified Art Nouveau environment in which the original decor has been kept.

Guests can choose to sit either inside, in the intimate yet lavish interior of the Café, or outside on the heated terrace, which is open all year round, to be closer to the city's hustle and bustle.

Café Métropole is the ideal spot to meet up with clients, take a break from shopping or simply meet other people.
